

Auction of additional underground storage capacity november – auction date postponement

Due to operational reasons the allocation date is postponed to Wednesday 30th of October at 9:00 h. This postponement allows users to have better information for monthly programming purposes, knowing the behavior of the system in the month of October.

All the properties and allocation procedure of the product will remain in accordance with the previously published operation note.